Marketing Customer Interface

Rosemary Phipps 2001 'The Marketing Customer Interface 2001-2002' is a specifically tailored coursebook for students undertaking the Marketing Customer Interface module of the CIM Advanced Certificate. Butterworth-Heinemann have worked closely with the Education Division of the CIM to ensure that all aspects of the text are up-to-date and correspond to the CIM's requirements, making this title the definitive companion to this year's course. Its comprehensive content and user-friendly text layout are designed to facilitate learning, with questions, activities, definitions and study tips to support the theory, while the structured study units link the information directly to the CIM syllabus. The new edition of this text contains:

- a firmly international perspective
- new material to cover e-marketing issues
- new and up to date examples and case studies to illustrate the theory
- additional text references and website references
- preparatory aids for the final exam, including the most recent exam papers, examiners' marking schemes and specimen answers

Comprehensive yet uniquely accessible, it provides essential support for anyone undertaking a CIM course. completely revised and updated to fit in with CIM Marketing Customer Interface syllabus officially endorsed by the CIM approved by the CIM Chief Examiner
