A Guide to Observation, Participation, and Reflection in the Classroom Arthea J. S. Reed 2005 This guide provides you with a practical resource for school-based observations, teaching experiences, and reflection that not only will bridge the gap between the world of the student and the world of the teacher, but also will help you connect the world of theory with the world of practice. Includes completed and sequential sample forms of anecdotal and structured observations, and template forms at the back of the text and on the CD-ROM. This edition covers the No Child Left Behind legislation, discussion of the INTASC core standards and principles and their integration into the sample forms. Expanded guidance on portfolio development including new sections on how to start a portfolio, and expanded coverage of inclusion and resources for observing diversity in the classroom.

Handbook of Multicultural Competencies in Counseling and Psychology Donald B. Pope-Davis 2003-07-23 Cultural differences affect the way people think, feel, and act. In an increasingly diverse society, multicultural competency in research and counseling is not merely a matter of political correctness. It is a matter of scientific and professional responsibility. Handbook of Multicultural Competencies in Counseling and Psychology is the first book to offer the theoretical background, practical knowledge, and training strategies needed to achieve multicultural competence. Focusing on a wide range of professional settings, editors Donald B. Pope-Davis, Hardin L.K. Coleman, William Ming Liu, and Rebecca L. Toporek provide a compendium of the latest research related to multicultural competency and the hands-on framework to develop specialized multicultural practices. Promoting an appreciation of cultural differences, this innovative text includes A review of major measures of multicultural competency An analysis of popular empirically supported treatments within the schema of multicultural competency Information on multicultural competencies and accreditation An overview of ethical implications Teaching strategies to achieve multicultural competency Handbook of Multicultural Competencies in Counseling and Psychology provides a comprehensive foundation for understanding and integrating multiculturalism in all areas of professional practice. Offering directions for growth and development, the editors and a distinguished group of contributors explore emerging issues within the field. An indispensable resource for psychologists, social workers, school counselors, and teachers, this handbook is also an ideal supplementary text for students in counseling and clinical practice courses.

Comprehensive Handbook of Psychological Assessment: Industrial and organizational assessment Michel Hersen 2004 In one volume, the leading researchers in industrial/organizational assessment interpret the range of issues related to industrial/organizational tests, including test development and psychometrics, clinical applications, ethical and legal concerns, use with diverse populations, computerization, and the latest research. Clinicians and researchers who use these instruments will find this volume invaluable, as it contains the most comprehensive and up-to-date information available on this important aspect of practice.
