

Basic Skills Assessment Guide Mcfattertech

Basic Skills Assessment National Institute of Adult Education (England and Wales). Adult Literacy and Basic Skills Unit 1992 This material provides an initial assessment procedure to help identify the level of basic skills competence of people entering education or training. It is based on Adult Literacy and Basic Skills Unit Standards that describe how and to what level of performance adults should be able to use communication and number skills. The material can be used in basic skills programs, further education, prisons, voluntary organizations, workplace training, and government-funded training programs. Notes for assessors describe the material and steps to take before, during, and after the assessment. Instruction sheets provide a set of instructions for carrying out a series of assessment tasks. Eleven series of tasks are provided: foundation level and stages 1 and 2 reading, foundation level and stages 1 and 2 oral, foundation level and stages 1 and 2 writing, and foundation level and stages 1 and 2 numeracy. The instruction sheets provide performance criteria, assessment guidelines, time allowance for completion of a task, script to use in conducting the assessment, and Next Steps which give suggested routes through the material. Linked to each assessment task is a task sheet to be completed by the student or trainee. Individual assessment charts to be completed during the assessment show how the students/trainee performed each individual task. A summary assessment chart allows the assessor to aggregate assessment results. (YLB)

Fast Track (written assessment, 20 questions and user guide). The Basic Skills Agency 'Fast Track' is an assessment tool written by The Basic Skills Agency (U.K.). It is a simple screening tool designed to identify learners with literacy skills below Level 1 and numeracy skills below Entry 3 of the National Standards for Adult Literacy and Numeracy. 'Fast Track' is not a detailed diagnostic assessment, it is designed to enable tutors to make an early identification of basic skills needs and to make referrals for further diagnostic assessment. The set consists of three resources: * Fast Track User Guide (the importance of basic literacy and numeracy skills in daily life, instructions for using 'Fast Track', marking the the assessment) * Fast Track Written (task based assessment activity involving reading a job description, answering questions about the text in writing, filling in an application form) * Fast Track 20 Questions (questionnaire asking about everyday reading, writing and numeracy activities and how often help is required to complete these).
